A COMMUNICATION.

Mr. Editor—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at nights. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my wife got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely relieved me—W. S. Brockman, Bagnel, Mo. This remedy is for sale by Craig & Hocker.

DEAD.

President McKinley Dies Of His Wounds

And the Whole Country Sorrow at Its Loss.

BURIAL AT CANTON, THURSDAY.

Gangrene was the cause of the president's death, and there is a theory that the bullet was poisoned. The autopsy of the physicians demonstrated that the wound was fatal from the start and that death was unavoidable by any surgical or medical treatment. It was also found that there was no evidence of repair on the part of nature. Instead, the path of the bullet was surrounded by a gangrenous development as large in area as a silver dollar. This was true of both holes in the abdominal wall and stomach, in the upper end of the kidney, through which the bullet was found to have passed and also it was discovered that the pancreas was involved. Dr. Wasdin was supported by others in the theory that the bullet was poisoned, and a chemical and bacteriological examination of the remaining bullets in the pistol will be held to ascertain whether such was the case. The autopsy developed that the walls of the heart were thin, but Dr. Mann says the president did not have a tobacco heart, as was supposed by many.

There were private services at the Milburn House, Buffalo, Sunday morning over the remains of President McKinley and during the afternoon the body lay in state in the Buffalo City Hall. Monday the body was taken to Washington and the passing of the funeral train was marked by the tolling of bells. Last night the body rested in Executive Mansion and at 10 o'clock this morning the body will be taken to the rotunda of the Capitol, where it will lie in state until 12 o'clock Wednesday, when the public funeral, to which tickets will be issued, will be held. At 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon the body will be taken to Canton, where the final ceremonies will take place, conducted by the citizens under the direction of a committee appointed by the mayor.

The dead president was born at Niles, Ohio, 1843. Enlisted as private, 23d O. V. I. 1861. Mustered out as brevet major, 1865. Admitted to the bar, 1867. Elected prosecuting attorney, 1869. Married 1871. Elected to Congress, 1876. Member of Ways and Means Committee, 1880.

Chairman of Ways and Means Committee, 1889.

McKinley Tariff enacted 1890.

Gerrymandered out of Congress, 1890.

Elected governor of Ohio, 1891.

Re-elected governor, 1893.

Elected president, 1896.

Re-elected president, 1900.

Shot Sept. 6, 1901.

Died Sept. 14, 1901.

Vice President Roosevelt reached Buffalo Saturday afternoon and, after an official call of condolence at the Milburn home, took the oath of office as president at the residence of Ansley Wilcox. He was nervous throughout and tears were on his cheeks as he repeated the oath administered by Judge Hazel, of the United States District Court. Directly after the oath had been administered, President Roosevelt asked the members of the Cabinet for a conference, after which he announced that he had assurances that the Cabinet would remain at his request at least for the present. As he was about to take the oath Roosevelt said: "It shall be my aim to continue absolutely unbroken the policy of President McKinley for the peace, prosperity and honor of our beloved country." His first official act was the issuance of a proclamation setting apart Thursday as a day of mourning, on which day he calls upon the people to assemble at their respective places of worship.

The news of the president's death was broken to Mrs. McKinley by her sister, Mrs. Barber. She displayed unexpected calmness. Mrs. McKinley remained in her room all day. It has not yet been determined whether she shall participate in the public funeral at Washington or go direct to Canton.

A death mask of President McKinley's face was made Sunday morning. The mask was taken by Edward L. A. Pausch, of Hartford, Conn. Pausch has modeled the features of many of the distinguished men who have died in this country in recent years. The mask is a faithful reproduction of the president's features.

Special memorial services were held in the churches throughout the country Sunday in honor of the dead president.

Grover Cleveland, the only living ex-president, will attend Mr. McKinley's burial.

The sudden collapse of President McKinley was due to the presence of toxic poison in the system, caused by imperfectly digested food.

The congregations of the churches at Danville united Sunday night in memorial services for the death of President McKinley.

Mrs. McKinley is in a greatly weakened state, and, in spite of her efforts to be strong, collapsed at the depot in Buffalo before boarding the funeral train.

An anarchist at Martinsville, Ind., who expressed pleasure at the death of the president, was taken from his home, stripped, tied to a tree and severely flogged.

Leon Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, will be tried before the regular term of the New York supreme court, Gov. Odell having declined to call a special session.

The death of President McKinley has caused an outburst of sympathy in Great Britain, and King Edward has ordered the English court to wear emblems of mourning for a week.

An indictment against Czolgosz for the murder of the president will probably be handed up by the grand jury today, and his arraignment before the supreme court will quickly follow.

A mob stormed the Chicago jail Saturday night with the intention of lynching the anarchist suspects under confinement there, but was dispersed by the police on reaching the jail door.

Acting Postmaster General Shallenberger has issued the following order: "Out of respect to the memory of our late president, all postoffices will be closed on Thursday, Sept. 19, after 10 o'clock A. M."

Philip King, in a discussion of the financial outlook, expresses the opinion that President Roosevelt will rise to the occasion, and he thinks the effect of the change of administration is already discounted.

It is probable that the president's assassin will be indicted for murder at once in Buffalo and his trial will come up in the Supreme court of New York State Monday, Sept. 23. The penalty of his crime is death in the electric chair.

President McKinley left a will. The instrument was executed some time before the shooting, and at no time during his final suffering was there any wish or occasion to revise it or to frame a codicil. It leaves the bulk of his property to Mrs. McKinley. How much the estate is worth can not be stated with exactness.

MIDDLEBURG.

Several cases of scarlet fever are reported in the country.

Clell McAninch has moved to Wayne county. Several Casey boys are working in Wayne.

The watermelon season is about over with, this year's fruit being the smallest in years on account of the drouth. There is a fairly good crop of apples and plums.

Miss Ella Ferrell, daughter of Rev. Ferrell, is quite ill with typhoid fever. Little Bertha Lucas, daughter of Luther Lucas, had the misfortune to lose the tip of her right index finger by a hatchet in the hands of a little playmate.

W. T. Coulter, T. S. Benson and J. A. Wall, the present incumbent, are seeking the democratic nomination for magistrate in the Middleburg district. As all three are honest, capable and trustworthy, the democracy of the district could not wish for better timber to pick from.

Walter Eason, who has been visiting relatives here, has returned to his home in Garrard county. Little Charlie Wheat, of St. Louis, is visiting relatives here. Miss Alice Hall, one of Casey's most popular school-teachers, visited friends and relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

The protracted meeting which has been going on at the Christian church for the past two weeks, was to have closed Friday night, but by special request, Rev. Gilliam, the pastor and conductor of the series of meetings, has consented to continue a few days longer.

An association of the teachers of Casey county was held at Clementsville Saturday and was attended by several of the teachers from this section of the county. The next meeting of the teachers of this county will be held at Middleburg Saturday, Sept. 23, when a large delegation is expected to be present.

M. W. Jones, democratic nominee for county judge, is out in the bushes this week whooping up the boys. Mr. Jones is making a clean and honorable canvass and is not resorting to mudslinging. He is gaining ground every day and has already succeeded in securing Capt. Raines. Present signs point to his election, though it will be a hard fight.

Proclamation of The Mayor.

Our beloved President McKinley, who was ruthlessly assassinated at Buffalo, will be laid to rest at Canton, O., Thursday, Sept. 19. In conformity to the proclamation of the president of the United States issued Saturday, the people of Stanford are requested to close their places of business and assemble at their usual places of worship at 2 o'clock P. M., and hold proper memorial services; or if they desire, hold a union meeting. J. N. MENESEE, Mayor.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Maj. John D. Harris is very ill at his home in Madison county.

Mrs. Lottie Boyce's home at Junction City was destroyed by fire causing a loss of $1,200. She had $600 insurance.

John Pope, of Livingston, has rented the Crescent Hill Dairy Farm near Danville and will take possession Oct. 1.

The Beatty Oil Company, capital stock $10,000, and headquarters at Burnside, filed articles of incorporation at Frankfort.

At a meeting of interested citizens at Lancaster, O. T. Wallace and J. M. Farra were chosen as delegates to the National Good Roads Convention.

Bro. H. W. Elliott, evangelist for the State of Kentucky, will preach at the Christian church next Sunday morning. The attendance of all members is earnestly desired. J. W. Hagin.

Harry Campbell, Charley Baker, Joe Hutchison and Lewis Cheatham, of Paint Lick, were arrested near Lancaster Saturday night charged with shooting at a lot of Negroes on the Bryantville pike and wounding one of them.

Mrs. Mary A. McKee, the aged aunt of Mrs. R. C. Warren, of this place, was found dead in her room at Danville Sunday morning. She was 78 years old and was a highly educated and refined lady. Death is supposed to have been the result of heart disease.

Bruce & Bright have under way of construction one of the largest storage houses in Central Kentucky, on their lot near the Cincinnati Southern freight depot. In dimensions it is 135 feet long, 100 feet wide and 26 feet high. It will be used for the storage of hay and grain.—Advocate.

A dispatch from Danville says: Dr. Henry Conner, a dentist, accidentally drank a glass of water in which was a solution of arsenic. He then retired for the night, but was awakened by pains, and, believing that he was too ill to recover, attempted to write a note stating that he had not committed suicide. He will recover.

Shannon McKinney, of Livingston, had a cow to disappear about three weeks ago; much time was spent looking for her, yet no trace could be found, but about the time the cow had been gone three weeks, he decided to take a peep in the stable, which was almost hidden by weeds, and as he opened the door, what met the gaze of his eyes but the helpless and beyond redemption carcass of his old cow.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

MATRIMONIAL.

Henry Collins, aged 21, and Miss Nellie Prewitt, sweet 16, were married at Crab Orchard Saturday.

A triple wedding was celebrated near Salt Lick, the three brides being sisters and two of the bridegrooms brothers.

Because she could not tell which one of three brothers was her husband, Mrs. Louis Zevin, of New Britain, Conn., after three days of married life, has left her husband. Her husband is one of triplets, and it was at the wedding that Mrs. Zevin first saw her husband's brothers. They looked so much alike that she could not tell which one she had married.

CAME NEAR BEING A CRIPPLE.

Josh Westhafer, of Loogootee, Ind., is a poor man, but he says he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle, for it saved him from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this liniment for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains and rheumatic and muscular pains. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by Craig & Hocker.

LANCASTER.

THE murderous bullet of the anarchist assassin finally did its deadly work and seven and a half days after it was fired into the president's vitals the spirit of nature's nobleman, the statesman and christian gentleman winged its flight to dwell forever with Him, who said, "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life." The end came at 2:15 Saturday morning, after seven hours of unconsciousness following a touching scene with his wife whom he sent for. As she responded to his call, he attempted to chant "Nearer My God to Thee." There were a few words of affectionate greeting and Mr. McKinley lapsed into unconsciousness, his last audible words being "Good-bye, all; good-bye. It is God's way. His will be done." The shock of the president's sudden collapse was almost as intense as the news of his assassination, which came like a thunderbolt from a clear sky. The country had been buoyed up by favorable bulletins from his bedside and hope had inspired every manly breast that the great and good man would be spared to the nation and to his loving wife. But man proposes and God disposes and today the whole country is bowed with grief, the nature of the president's taking off adding indignation to sorrow. There was neither reason nor excuse for the deed. The country was in profound peace at home and the president was the most kindly of men. His administration was conservative and patriotic and was reflecting credit alike on him and the people. The occasion was a grand social gathering, the nature of which is witnessed in no other country. The president was receiving and shaking hands with his fellow-citizens and had extended his hand to the vile wretch, who, acting under orders of his red-handed crowd, who despise all forms of government and hate all rulers, fired the fatal shot. The deed emphasizes the imperative demand that anarchy shall be stamped from this country and if it results in the hanging, incarceration or banishment of every one who holds the same views as Czolgosz, President McKinley will not have died in vain, deplorable as is his death.

GEN. E. H. HOBSON, of Greensburg, president of the Mexican War Veterans' Association, died suddenly at Cleveland, O., of heart failure. He was 77 years old and a prominent banker. Gen. Hobson served as a lieutenant during the Mexican war and was colonel of the 13th Kentucky Infantry during the Civil War. He was made a brigadier general for bravery at Shiloh and his commission as major general was ready for the president's signature when Lincoln was assassinated. Gen. Hobson was in command of the troops that captured John Morgan's raiders in Ohio. Gen. Hobson was interested in having Mrs. Pokie T. Courts, now Mrs. A. McKinley, appointed postmaster here under President Harrison.

It is stated that John W. Yerkes will resign as commissioner of internal revenue, but the report is not believed.

GUITEAU'S curse upon the jury that condemned him to death for killing President Garfield hasn't proven much of a weight. Eight of them are still living and doing well, while the dead ones lived to a good old age. The curse of a vile murderer and assassin doesn't hurt any one but himself.

THE Glasgow Times thinks that Czolgosz made the mistake of his life by not making a bee line for Indiana after he had shot President McKinley. Brer Richardson is wrong. Indiana is the harbor only for those assassins who slay democrats.

THE Spencer Courier makes a dirty fling at Hon. James B. McCreary, which will do that paper much more damage than it will the distinguished gentleman from Madison, who will be our next U. S. Senator.

THOSE enterprising Danville papers, the News and the Courier, both got out special editions telling about President McKinley's death.

THIS AND THAT.

Thomas Floyd, aged 78, is dead in Boyle.

The court of appeals buckled down to work again yesterday.

The suit of the Union National Bank of Louisville, vs the Somerset Banking Co., on motion of the attorneys for plaintiff was dismissed without prejudice and $62,000 will be paid the depositors at once.

A statement purporting to be authoritatively given out from the headquarters of the road says that the Louisville Southern, in view of the deadlock which threatens to prevent the lease of the C. N. O. & T. P., will extend its line to Chattanooga.

LONDON FAIR.—A crowd estimated at from 5,000 to 8,000 attended the London Fair Friday and enjoyed to the fullest extent a splendid show of stock and three hotly contested races. The exhibition which ended that day, was the best in the history of the association and President J. T. Williams, Secretary E. A. Chilton and General Manager R. M. Jackson have a right to feel proud of their success financially and otherwise. Lincoln, Madison, Rockcastle and Knox counties were all represented in the show of stock, which far surpassed previous meetings. The floral hall was well filled with women's work, farm and garden products and the like and was a popular place, especially with the ladies. Mrs. Ellis Harkleroad, who was Miss Sudie Riley, won a half dozen or so premiums on her needle work, cakes, etc., which were highly complimented. As usual, much interest was centered in the fancy turnout ring and it was won by Miss Williams, the handsome daughter of President Williams. A sister of Miss Williams won in the best lady driver's ring. Mack Hughes' Muskatoo won the trot in straight heats, going the last mile in 2:25. Dave Wilcox got second money with Neal and Hon. B. B. King, of this county, third with Ante Carlo. R. M. Jackson's Arthur W. won the pace with McClure & Napier's Walter C. second. Arthur W. paced one of the miles in 2:15, breaking the track record. John Wiggins took the running race and R. H. Bronaugh's Red Bond came second. Mr. Bronaugh won the running races of Wednesday and Thursday.

DANVILLE COURT.—There were about 100 or so cattle on the Danville market yesterday but buyers and sellers were so far apart that very little trading was done. A few choice yearlings and two-year-olds brought close to 3 1/2c, while heifers went as low as 2c. A number of mules sold at $65 to $140 and horses at $40 to $100. The crowd was a little above the average for this time of the year.

In the matter of the manner of supplanting the unspeakable Deboe with a democratic Senator who can open his mouth without putting his foot in it, the Democratic State Central and Executive Committees have wisely decided to let well enough alone. The objections pointed out by former Gov. McCreary to a Senatorial primary at this late stage of the Legislative campaign are unanswered and unanswerable.—Lou. Times.

DISCHARGED.—James Nick Smith was discharged at his trial at Crab Orchard the other day for killing Sam Humber, colored. He was tried before Judge Bailey.

BIG APPLE.—M. J. P. Hubble, of the Jumbo section, left at this office Friday an apple weighing a pound and which looks as luscious as it is possible for fruit to be.

CUT.—A young son of Millard Bastin was perhaps fatally cut by a son of Jake Walls while on his way to church at Middleburg the other night. The boys had quarreled previously.

CHANGED HANDS.—The Hustonville & Green River Valley Telephone line has been sold by the stock company which owned it to Messrs. J. C. Coulter, James Giboney and T. J. Bell, of Casey, for $405.

WALTER C. GREENING will make a city out of Hustonville if he is given time. He is building a handsome residence on Main Street at that place, which makes about the doventh house he has put up there in the last year or so.

OLD COUPLE BAPTIZED.—Mr. G. W. Carson and wife, aged 80 and 75, respectively, were baptized near Turnersville the other day by Eld. J. Q. Montgomery. Mr. Carson was sprinkled when an infant but he wanted to "begin at Jordan as his Master did," he said.

FOR SAFE-KEEPING.—Sheriff Sutton and Deputies Ed Sutton and N. E. Johnson, of Whitley, delivered to Jailor DeBord for safe-keeping Saturday, Charles and John Shotwell, who were given a life sentence for killing Sutton Farris at Corbin. They will appeal their case.

THE Harrodsburg Democrat asks: "Did you ever notice that about the time the 60 days expire a lot of 'fool democrats' begin to move from one precinct to another and lose their votes by doing so? Have you also ever observed that a republican never does a thing of this kind? If you know any one of the latter, show him to us and take our hat, or a new one."

JONES.—Mrs. Leonora F. Jones, aged 22 and the only daughter of Mr. Eastham Tarrant, who frequently contributes to this paper, died at her home near Humphrey, Casey county, Friday, of pneumonia. A six-year-old daughter is left to mourn the loss of a kind and indulgent mother. Mrs. Jones' husband died several years ago.

KENNEDY.—Eb. Kennedy, son of Grove C. Kennedy, died at his father's in the Preachersville section Friday morning and was buried in the cemetery at Preachersville Saturday, after services at the grave by Rev. Mr. Hobbs. Mr. Kennedy was about 25 years old and left a wife and one child. He was a hard-working, clever young man and his death is greatly regretted. He had been ill some time.

THE father of James Howard passed through Stanford on Friday morning's train bound for his home in the mountains. He had been to Frankfort to attend the trial of his son, which was continued until the January term. Mr. Howard is a rather good looking old gentleman and has a very mild pair of eyes. He is about 60 years old, but is as straight as an arrow and walks with as firm a step as a man of 35.

SOLD OUT.—W. W. Withers, who has successfully conducted a furniture store here for a number of years, has sold his splendid stock to George L. Carpenter, of the Moreland section, and Winfred G. Withers, of this place, who will compose the "Withers Furniture Co." Mr. Withers has been associated with his brother for a long time and understands well the furniture business. Mr. Carpenter has had no experience in that line but it will not take him long to catch on. The retiring Mr. Withers will rest and try to regain his health the balance of the year and begin the new year in a new role.

THEY BIT.—In our last issue we stated that we would pay $19 for 1901 pennies, meaning of course that number of coppers. The ink on the paper had scarcely dried until pennies made this year, 1901, were brought to us by people who really seemed to expect $19 for them. "Bring us 1900 coppers more and the $19 is yours," we would answer and then they saw the joke. E. M. Morrow, of Somerset, sent us a penny made in 1901 and requested us to forward check by return mail; J. W. Bailey, of Norwood, bit about as readily, while Mr. Sim Cook came all the way from Cook's Springs to bring a penny that was made this year. Joe Gineburg, of this place, was the first to come in and while it took him a long time to see the point, he enjoyed it as much as the rest after he caught on. "They" tell on Jack Beazley that he paid $10 for one of the pennies and had started to our office to get his reward when all of a sudden the thought struck him that he didn't have enough money.

I HAVE just received a big lot of harness, saddlery, &c. J. C. McClary.

SEED WHEAT.—Come and see our Northern seed wheat before buying. J. H. Baughman & Co.

SEPTEMBER 22d is the last day for filing claims against the county to be allowed at the October term. Geo. B. Cooper, clerk.

REDD.—Mr. C. A. Redd died at his home near Crab Orchard, Sunday, September 16th. He had been in poor health for a long time but his death was unexpected. About 2 o'clock Sunday morning his wife was awake and talked with him, his condition showing no alarming symptoms, but upon awaking at 4 A. M. she found him dead. Deceased was a member of the Methodist church and was a conscientious, christian gentleman. Mr. Redd had been married three times, his first wife being a sister of Gen. T. T. Garrard. Not long since Mr. Redd and his surviving wife celebrated their golden wedding. Three children are left to mourn the loss of a loving father, Mrs. John S. Cooper, C. A. Redd, Jr., and Dr. Bob Redd. The burial took place at C. O. yesterday morning, the ceremonies being conducted by the Masons, of which order he had been a member for a number of years.

THE proposition to issue graded school bonds, referred to in our last issue, should be defeated for many reasons. What we sadly need is a reduction rather than an increase of the rate of taxation. The State now collects $70c on the $100; the county can go as high as 50 cents, and with the turnpikes to pay for and maintain, the rate can never be much, if any, under the limit. The town may levy as much as 75c, and if the saloons should be voted out, the full amount will be required to run the city government. The school tax is now 40c, and if the bonds are issued, 35c additional may be added, making a total of $2.47c that may be levied on a person residing in town, if all should reach the limit, which is generally the case. A town man, therefore, would have to pay about one-half of his income, as money now goes begging at 5 per cent. High taxes ruin any place and Stanford has already felt their effect. Its banking capital has been reduced from $450,000 to $100,000 and every man with a surplus dollar is buying farming lands and, strange as it may seem, some of the most enthusiastic graded school advocates are among the number. Moreover, if the bonds should be voted, it will be impossible to sell them with a suit pending to test the validity of the graded school election, and the amount asked for, $12,000, is at least double what it should be. Don't forget the date and place, Saturday, Sept. 21, at the public school building. Be on hand and vote against the proposition.

WEATHERFORD.—Wm. D. Weatherford died at his home near Hustonville about 10 o'clock Friday night after a lingering illness, aged 47. The news of his death was received here a few moments later and a gloom was cast over his legion of friends, who had known him for years and who loved him for his numerous noble traits of character. Affable as men get to be and well posted, he was a most interesting and pleasing conversationalist and his companionship was always sought after. He was a Chesterfield in manners and a gentleman in all the word implies. Liberal hearted and liberal minded, Mr. Weatherford gave freely of his means to many good causes, including the various churches of his town. His devotion to his aged mother was beautiful indeed and it is not strange that she is crushed by his taking away. Her sorrow at his grave brought tears to many eyes and would have melted a heart of stone. Her oldest son, who had filled the place made vacant by the death of his father, had been snatched from her and all is dark and gloomy to her. May He who doeth all things well comfort her in her great loss. God grant that the sister and brothers, who loved him so dearly, shall soon realize that 'tis better for those who have gone before than those who are left behind. "Billy" Weatherford, as he was affectionately called, was an intimate friend of the writer, whose grief at his death is assuaged only by a realization that his sufferings are ended and a hope that he is better off. A very large crowd gathered at his late home Sunday afternoon and followed the remains to Hustonville Cemetery, where, after appropriate remarks by Rev. W. W. Bruce and several songs sweetly sung by a quartette of gentlemen, they were laid to rest to await the resurrection morn. Beautiful flowers by the wagon load were sent by loving friends, who knew Mr. Weatherford's fondness for them, while many letters and telegrams of condolence have been received by his family.

Rev. Mr. Bruce was very fond of the deceased and it was a hard task for him to preach his funeral, although he did it well. His prayer was a most fervent and touching one, while his reference to the aged mother and sorrowing sister and brothers was couched in words almost sublime. There was scarcely a dry eye when the benediction was said and few hearts were sadder than that of the man of God, who loved the dead for his many sterling qualities.

DON'T forget the Maccabee picnic at Liberty Saturday. Of course the INTERIOR JOURNAL will be represented.

MAYOR MENESEE's proclamation to close business houses at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon and spend an hour in prayer and appropriate memorial services, found elsewhere in this paper, should be heeded by everybody in town and surrounding country.

A SPOTTED bound, white and black, with head nine inches long, a long, smooth tail, which he carries even with his body, left Bony Carter's, near Turnersville, supposed to belong to Mr. Green. If he is the dog in question $5 will be paid for him if left at this office.

BOYLE county democrats were in high feather yesterday and were feeling like winners. The republicans down there threaten to put out a ticket the latter part of this month, but it causes the gallant democracy of that county no loss of sleep, for they are organized to win and are going to win sure and certain.

No settlement has been made with the miners of the Pittsburg district, but a gentleman informs us that he thinks an agreement will be reached soon. The principal trouble is occasioned by the miners insisting on the recognition of united mine workers, which does not please the operators. So far as the price per ton for mining coal is concerned, there is practically no difference between miners and operators.

OSTEOPATHY.

This Science, originated and developed by Dr. A. T. Still, of Kirksville, Mo., depends on the principles of Anatomy and Physiology for its results. It requires no faith, no drug, no rubbing, no surgical operations, and claims "curing" natural.

Osteopathy views man as a machine of so many parts; its keynote is adjustment. When all parts are properly adjusted and not overworked, health is the result.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. R. R. Noel begun a protracted meeting at Silver Creek Sunday.

The Presbyterian church of Paint Lick has called the Rev. J. H. White, of Virginia.

Eld. Wm. Stanley closed a meeting at Alton, with 32 accessions, 30 of which were by baptism.

The meeting at the Methodist church will continue through the week. Services at 7:15 each evening. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Arnold.

The Fifth Sunday Association of the Baptist churches of Boyle, Lincoln, Garrard and Mercer counties will be held in Harrodsburg on the 29th inst.

The religious press claims that more vice has been brought into America by the "midways" of Chicago and Buffalo than by everything in the previous two centuries.

Rev. J. B. Crouch assisted in a meeting in Harrison county last week which resulted in six additions. He is assisting the pastor of the Brumfield church in a meeting this week.

Elder J. G. Livingston writes: "Our meeting at Pine Grove closed Sunday night with 25 additions to the church. I am called this, Monday, morning to preach Bro. Redd's funeral at his late residence near Crab Orchard."

The Rev. Earle D. Sims, D. D., of Fai Au Fee, Shantung Province, China, will assist Pastor J. B. Ferrell in a series of meetings at the Baptist church at Middleburg, beginning at 7 P. M., Sept. 23. The first service will be a free lecture to all

Confusion exists in the ranks of the strikers, and many of them have not received the official order to resume work. It is said that the settlement will cause a big loss to the Amalgamated Association. The plight of the tinplate workers is said to be especially severe, as they will either be forced to remain out or withdraw from the association. It is claimed they are bitter against the Amalgamated leaders, and may form a separate organization. According to reports received in Pittsburgh, the settlement only affects the three companies in dispute—the American Tinplate, the American Sheet Steel and the American Steel Hoop—and these companies will remain non-union.

QUESTION ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of indigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's Prize Almanac. For sale at Penny's Drug Store, Stanford.

After January 1 the shipper who has but one load of cattle or hogs for the market will be unable to get a return pass. The railroads have decided to abolish this custom, which has been in vogue for years, and make it necessary to have at least two cars to obtain a return pass. If the shipper has five cars he may get two return passes. Not more than three passes will be issued, no matter how many cars are shipped.

WATER CURE FOR CHRONIC CONSTIPATION.

Take two cups of hot water half an hour before each meal and just before going to bed, also a drink of water, hot or cold, about two hours after each meal. Take lots of outdoor exercise—walk, ride drive. Make a regular habit of this and in many cases chronic constipation may be cured without the use of any medicine. When a purgative is required take something mild and gentle like Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the college to supply.
